CELEBRATING 100 YEARS
EMBASSY THEATRE SKEGNESS

The dark evenings do not last for long and rest assured, if you are looking for something to warm your heart, entertain you or distract you from the rigours of everyday life then we have just the tonic...

Our festive season is packed full of the joys of the autumn and of course, it always culminates with our annual pantomime spectacular. This year, the Embassy Theatre is transformed into Sherwood Forest for a tale that's bound to hit the target - Robyn Hood is your Magna Vitae Productions pantomime for 2026.

Our wonderful centenary season will soon be at an end but we'll be continuing to celebrate as we move into season 101 - hence our homage to this on the cover. Thank you all for supporting us too. You've given us a host of reasons to be cheerful. Talking of giving... if you're struggling to think what to buy your friends, family and perhaps even, bring someone else a little festive cheer, then look no further. You can treat them to show tickets, perhaps buy them a piece of our merchandise (see below), however, if you can't decide between either a show or a souvenir then you can always buy them a gift voucher instead and let them choose for themselves.*

From all of us to all of you. May your festive season be bright, kind and above all, safe. We hope you enjoy spending your time with those who matter most and all being well, that includes us too.

Have a wonderful time everyone. We hope to see you soon. For more details about our new season, commencing in February 2027, turn your brochure around...*

Best wishes,
The Embassy Experience team x

Over the course of our centenary season, there have been many wonderful moments, but earlier this year, we were honoured to have been featured in a very special BBC Sounds documentary commemorating our one hundred years in Skegness.

BBC Radio Lincolnshire created this special episode of Secret Lincolnshire via the BBC Sounds app. You can listen back to this at any time and wallow in nostalgia, listen to your favourite stars talk about their memories of performing here as well as hear behind the scenes snippets from our team. We were also delighted to be featured on BBC Look North as a part of our centenary celebrations as well as see the documentary launched on The Scott Dalton Breakfast Show - live on air.

Saturday 26th August 2028 — Jimmy Carr: Killing Jokes

In comedy, "killing" is a good thing. Everywhere else, it's frowned upon. Jimmy has confirmed "kills" in over fifty countries and on thirteen specials. The brand-new show is packed with fast, dark one-liners about all kinds of terrible things. But they are just jokes. They're not the terrible things. Jokes are like magnets. They attract some people and repel others. You can joke about anything, but not with anyone. If you're attracted to Jimmy's brand of comedy and think you can take the jokes, then by all means come out and play. If you think you'd be offended, then stay away. At this point, being offended at a Jimmy Carr show is like buying a ticket to a horror movie and complaining you got scared. If you've read this far, we know you want to come...

"Hurry up and buy a ticket. It'll sell out, so don't miss out."
